The CliftonStrengths at the top of your profile are the most powerful.

These themes represent how you are uniquely talented. They are the starting point for living your strongest life possible.

Develop these CliftonStrengths to maximize your potential

Your greatest chance to succeed — at work or anywhere else — lies in strengthening what you naturally do best and doing more of it.

Start with your top five.

They are your most powerful natural talents.

1. Read everything about your top CliftonStrengths. To make the most of your talents, you first need to understand them and how to describe them to others.
2. Reflect on who you are. Think about your experiences, your motivations and how you see yourself. Then, consider how your CliftonStrengths shape you: what you do, how you do it and why.
3. Use these CliftonStrengths every day. Start with the suggestions in this report for applying your most powerful CliftonStrengths.
4. Watch out for blind spots. Sometimes how you exhibit your strongest CliftonStrengths can cause unintended negative misperceptions. Read the "What Is a Weakness?" section to learn more about preventing your strongest CliftonStrengths from getting in your way.

Then focus on your CliftonStrengths 6-10.

Apply the same strategies to make the most of your next five CliftonStrengths. You will excel and become the absolute best version of yourself when you take a strengths-based approach to your life. Do more of what you do best, and you'll feel more engaged, empowered and energized.

STRATEGIC THINKING

1. Learner®

HOW YOU CAN THRIVE

You have a great desire to learn and want to continuously improve. The process of learning, rather than the outcome, excites you.

WHY YOUR LEARNER IS UNIQUE

These Strengths Insights are personalized based on your CliftonStrengths results.

It's very likely that you endorse the importance of acquiring additional knowledge and gaining new skills. You regard education as an ongoing activity.

Driven by your talents, you often spend considerable time examining the details underpinning an idea. Rather than rush through your research, you typically stick with it until you are convinced everything makes sense.

Instinctively, you may gather historical facts or artifacts — that is, pictures, tools, books, artwork, correspondence, or documents. Perhaps you wait to determine whether this information is useful. Your interest in history might have no purpose other than to answer your own questions. Maybe you are drawn to the past and its people. In some ways, the future starts to take shape in your mind if you rummage through your collection of historic truths and objects.

Chances are good that you might have a particular desire for knowledge. Perhaps you feel it makes little sense to skim through a book and read only the highlights. You might want to delve more deeply into intriguing subjects than most people. Maybe you love to gather all kinds of information.

By nature, you may be attracted to assignments that demand original and inventive thinking. In some cases, you track down new ideas, facts, or data. Your out-of-the-box thinking might challenge some people to abandon, or at the very least to question, specific conventional practices. When you cause one or two of them to suggest options, maybe their need to protect the status quo will be replaced by a desire to gather more information.

WHY YOU SUCCEED USING LEARNER

You love to learn, and you intuitively know how you learn best. Your natural ability to pick up and absorb information quickly and to challenge yourself to continually learn more keeps you on the cutting edge.

TAKE ACTION TO MAXIMIZE YOUR POTENTIAL

Use your passion for learning to add value to your own and others' lives.

- Become an early adopter of new technology, and keep your coworkers, friends and family informed. You learn quickly, and others will appreciate when you share and explain cutting-edge developments to them.
- Respect your desire to learn. Take advantage of educational opportunities in your community or at work. Discipline yourself to sign up for at least one new course or class each year.
- Find opportunities to expand your knowledge. Take on increasingly difficult topics, courses or projects. You love the challenge of a steep learning curve, so beware of learning plateaus.
- Be a catalyst for change. New rules, skills or circumstances might intimidate others. Your willingness to absorb new and different factors can calm their fears.
- Keep track of your learning progress. If a skill or topic has distinct levels or stages of learning, celebrate your progression from one level to the next. If not, create them for yourself. For example, set a goal of reading five books on a new subject.

WATCH OUT FOR BLIND SPOTS

- You place a high value on learning and studying, and you may tend to impose this value on others. Be sure to respect others' motivations, and resist pushing them toward learning for learning's sake.
- You love the process of learning so much that the outcome might not matter to you. Be careful not to let the process of knowledge acquisition get in the way of your results and productivity.

INFLUENCING

2. Self-Assurance®

HOW YOU CAN THRIVE

You feel confident in your ability to take risks and manage your own life. You have an inner compass that gives you certainty in your decisions.

WHY YOUR SELF-ASSURANCE IS UNIQUE

These Strengths Insights are personalized based on your CliftonStrengths results.

Because of your strengths, you sometimes dive into challenging situations because you trust yourself to survive or excel. Maybe you know that you have the talent to deal with obstacles or hazards as you encounter them. Launching new ventures might thrill you. Tackling impossible goals might energize you. Stepping out of your comfort zone into unfamiliar territory might stimulate you.

It's very likely that you can prepare people to encounter danger, bear pain, or withstand adversity. You fortify others so they grow stronger.

Driven by your talents, you feel fulfilled by the steady improvements you have made as an individual throughout your life. You probably have confidence in your talents, knowledge, and skills.

Chances are good that you may see particular value in the proverb "Nothing ventured, nothing gained." Instead of choosing the easy and obvious path, you might challenge yourself to surpass your original goals. With courage and perseverance, you attempt to produce good results. Rather than ask for guarantees of success or financial rewards, you might choose to boldly forge ahead toward your desired goals.

By nature, you occasionally slow down to talk about large-scale ideas with your teammates. Maybe you wish you could find time to do this more often because it is so informative.

WHY YOU SUCCEED USING SELF-ASSURANCE

You trust your instincts, so you forge ahead confidently, even on risky paths. Because of your certainty, persuasiveness and ability to make decisions easily, you lead the way for others.

TAKE ACTION TO MAXIMIZE YOUR POTENTIAL

Trust your gut, and live life on your own terms.

- Trust your instincts, but always gather enough input from other sources to ensure you make well-informed decisions.
- Look for startup opportunities. You are comfortable working without a rulebook, and you are at your best when you have to make many decisions.
- Bring your confidence to areas of uncertainty where others are stuck. Your decisiveness and calm certainty in the midst of chaos can create comfort and security.
- Complement your natural confidence with others' talents and knowledge. Especially when you are facing an unfamiliar challenge, consult with people you trust before making a final decision. They can help you select the most productive, efficient strategy.
- Each month, reflect on your recent decisions and their outcomes. Looking back on the consequences of your choices will give you valuable insights and help you refine and strengthen your intuition.

WATCH OUT FOR BLIND SPOTS

- Your confidence in your ability to make the right decisions might make you feel like you don't need to consult anyone else. But no one is right all the time, so consider asking others for their input; they might even validate your hunches.
- Because you usually sound like you know what you're talking about — whether you do or not — others might be nervous about questioning you. Be careful not to alienate or intimidate others with your confidence.

EXECUTING

3. Achiever®

HOW YOU CAN THRIVE

You work hard and possess a great deal of stamina. You take immense satisfaction in being busy and productive.

WHY YOUR ACHIEVER IS UNIQUE

These Strengths Insights are personalized based on your CliftonStrengths results.

Instinctively, you motivate your friends with your passion for moving ideas from the talking stage to the action stage. Your dedication to various projects rallies numerous individuals to work alongside you.

By nature, you ordinarily take time and exert extra effort to comprehend what you are reading. You probably refuse to rush through written material. Why? You likely intend to commit to memory as many facts and concepts as possible.

Chances are good that you welcome opportunities to methodically examine details in data. You notice when a series of numbers repeats itself. Your hours of mental labor enable you to spot important pieces of information that most people overlook.

Driven by your talents, you can mentally zero in on tasks for hours at a time when you have a goal to reach. When the assignment demands extra time, you would be wise to honor your body's natural rhythms. In other words, if you are a "morning person," work in the morning. Work in the afternoon if that is when you hit your stride. Work in the evening if that is when you think better. Work around midnight after everyone has gone to bed if you are someone who usually stays up very late.

It's very likely that you use your mental and physical energy for hours when the situation demands such effort. You generally persevere and push yourself to keep working on assignments until you finish them. You refuse to quit until you reach your goal.

WHY YOU SUCCEED USING ACHIEVER

You love to complete tasks, and your accomplishments fulfill you. You have a strong inner drive — an innate source of intensity, energy and power that motivates you to work hard to get things done.

TAKE ACTION TO MAXIMIZE YOUR POTENTIAL

Bring intensity and effort to the most important areas of your life.

- Set challenging goals. Take advantage of your self-motivation with a more ambitious goal every time you finish a project.
- Take time to celebrate each success before moving on to your next item or task, even for just a few minutes.
- Limit your commitments to projects or assignments that align with your highest priorities as much as you can.
- Be sure to take regular breaks, even though you might be naturally equipped to work harder and longer than others.
- Make sure your to-do lists include tasks and responsibilities beyond work.

WATCH OUT FOR BLIND SPOTS

- You might get frustrated when others don't work as hard as you do, and they might see you as too demanding. Remember that not everyone has the same high expectations for themselves or is driven to work as hard as you are.
- Your pressing need to get things done might cause you to take on projects or agree to deadlines before you know everything that's involved. Before you commit to something, make sure you have the time and resources you need to do it right.

EXECUTING

4. Focus®

HOW YOU CAN THRIVE

You can take a direction, follow through and make the corrections necessary to stay on track. You prioritize, then act.

WHY YOUR FOCUS IS UNIQUE

These Strengths Insights are personalized based on your CliftonStrengths results.

Instinctively, you sometimes set goals for the week. These might prevent you from being drawn off course by each day's demands.

It's very likely that you pinpoint what you need to accomplish. Then you give it your undivided attention. Few people can match your natural powers of concentration.

Driven by your talents, you may occasionally help establish weekly performance goals or production targets.

Because of your strengths, you may be skilled and/or knowledgeable about specific issues, subjects, processes, or programs. Perhaps you combine this expertise with your ability to pinpoint goals you might want to reach in the coming weeks, months, years, or decades.

Chances are good that you sometimes work hard to reach specific personal or professional goals. These include, but are not limited to, earning a pay raise, winning a promotion, receiving a degree, acquiring something you value, or completing a certification program. Perhaps challenges related to status motivate you more than others do.

WHY YOU SUCCEED USING FOCUS

You have a powerful ability to prioritize, set goals and work efficiently. You avoid time-consuming distractions and stay on track toward an overall objective.

TAKE ACTION TO MAXIMIZE YOUR POTENTIAL

Set specific goals with timelines to motivate yourself.

- Attach timelines and measurements to your goals, and keep track of your progress. Regularly meeting your objectives will prove that you are moving forward and inspire you to do more.
- Try putting a daily “power hour” of complete focus on your calendar each week. During this hour, turn off all your social media alerts, get away from your email, find a committed space and work toward one important goal — and nothing else.
- Write down your goals and refer to them often. You will feel more in control of your life.
- In meetings, take responsibility for summarizing what the group decided, defining when the group will act on its decisions and setting a date to reconvene.
- Pay attention to those who think, act and talk less efficiently than you do. Sometimes their “detours” will lead to unexpected discoveries.

WATCH OUT FOR BLIND SPOTS

- You may focus so intently on your own work that you don’t notice when goals and priorities change. Remember to occasionally stop what you’re doing so you can re-evaluate your objectives.
- When you are absorbed in something, you may be slow to respond to others’ immediate needs and appear emotionally distant. Acknowledge that sometimes, you will have to stop and respond to interruptions from the important people in your life.

INFLUENCING

5. Command®

HOW YOU CAN THRIVE

You have presence. You can take control of a situation and make decisions.

WHY YOUR COMMAND IS UNIQUE

These Strengths Insights are personalized based on your CliftonStrengths results.

Because of your strengths, you are unsentimental and not often swayed by emotional arguments or passionate pleas. People are likely to describe you as quite realistic and practical.

Instinctively, you sometimes feel comfortable sharing your original ideas with groups. Perhaps they welcome your innovations. Maybe they realize you suggest novel ways of doing things they would never have considered.

By nature, you sometimes sense you are a bit overzealous making a name for yourself, advancing your career, or promoting your projects. Perhaps you question your sense of priority when work, studies, or some other activity consumes the majority of your time. Perhaps you wonder if your zeal distresses or displeases certain individuals.

Chances are good that you empower people with your air of certitude — that is, confidence. Your very presence reassures them that they indeed are quite ready and capable of tackling assignments, spearheading projects, or playing key positions on a team.

It's very likely that you may be the person to whom group members turn for original thoughts. Perhaps ideas pop into your consciousness as soon as someone describes a problem or an opportunity.

WHY YOU SUCCEED USING COMMAND

You are direct and firm in the face of resistance or challenges. Because you are comfortable taking charge and speaking up, you can remove bottlenecks and reassure others in times of crisis.

TAKE ACTION TO MAXIMIZE YOUR POTENTIAL

Be ready to take charge when others waver.

- Practice the words, tone and techniques that turn your ability to confront into persuasiveness.
- Take on worthwhile challenges, and bring others with you. Use your Command talents to lead others out of their comfort zone and into new territory where change is inevitable.
- Help your colleagues and friends make commitments. You can provide the spark that will inspire them to act.
- Find a cause that you believe in, and support it. You might be at your best when you are defending a cause in the face of resistance.
- Look for roles that require you to persuade others.

WATCH OUT FOR BLIND SPOTS

- Your decisiveness and presence can be intimidating, whether you intend it to be or not. Keep that in mind, especially when you have to coach others, deliver feedback and set expectations.
- Because you speak with authority, you might be used to getting the final word. Consider asking others for their input before sharing yours so they have a chance to contribute.

INFLUENCING

6. Activator®

HOW YOU CAN THRIVE

You can make things happen by turning thoughts into action. You want to do things now, rather than simply talk about them.

WHY YOU SUCCEED USING ACTIVATOR

You are a catalyst. You naturally know how to turn ideas into action, and you make things happen. Your energy can be contagious and engaging.

TAKE ACTION TO MAXIMIZE YOUR POTENTIAL

Be the catalyst. When others are stuck, make a decision and get going.

- Record your insights or revelations when you have them so you can act on them later.
- Take responsibility for your intensity. Your drive to make things happen can be the push that people and groups need to move from discussion to action.
- Put yourself in situations where you can make things happen. Your energy and tempo will engage you and the people you work with.

WATCH OUT FOR BLIND SPOTS

- Sometimes you might charge ahead and act without a solid plan. Before making a major decision, think about challenging yourself to consider alternatives and weigh options first.
- The force of your urging people to take action might make them feel overwhelmed and pressured to act before they are comfortable. Remember that others may not feel that same urgency, and some people will need more time to think before they act.

STRATEGIC THINKING

7. Analytical®

HOW YOU CAN THRIVE

You search for reasons and causes. You have the ability to think about all of the factors that might affect a situation.

WHY YOU SUCCEED USING ANALYTICAL

Your natural ability to investigate, diagnose and identify patterns results in valuable insights that are logical and well-thought-out. Your critical thinking helps clarify reality and provides objectivity.

TAKE ACTION TO MAXIMIZE YOUR POTENTIAL

Use your logical, objective approach to make important decisions.

- Identify credible sources you can rely on. Find helpful books, websites, experts or other resources that you can use as references.
- Get involved in the planning stages of a new initiative or project so you can evaluate its feasibility and direction before it gets too far along.
- Accept that sometimes you will need to take action before all the facts are in place.

WATCH OUT FOR BLIND SPOTS

- Your objective and fact-based approach to decision-making may seem skeptical or critical. Keep in mind that others will have emotional, subjective and personal opinions — and that their input is just as valuable as yours is.
- Because you ask many questions, people may think that you always doubt the validity of their ideas, that you do not trust them and that you are tough to work with. Explain your analysis so they will be more likely to trust your process and your motives.

INFLUENCING

8. Maximizer®

HOW YOU CAN THRIVE

You focus on strengths as a way to stimulate personal and group excellence. You seek to transform something strong into something superb.

WHY YOU SUCCEED USING MAXIMIZER

You focus on quality, and you prefer working with and for the best. By seeing what each person naturally does best and empowering them to do it, you make individuals, teams and groups better.

TAKE ACTION TO MAXIMIZE YOUR POTENTIAL

Strive for excellence, and encourage others to do the same.

- Stay focused on your own strengths. Choose one talent you want to maximize each month, and invest in building on it. Refine your skills. Acquire new knowledge. Practice. Keep working toward mastery.
- Make your weaknesses irrelevant. Find a partner, devise a support system or use one of your stronger themes to compensate for your weaker ones.
- Help your friends and coworkers recognize others' talents and strengths.

WATCH OUT FOR BLIND SPOTS

- Your desire to exhaust all possible outcomes can frustrate those who want to come to a suitable conclusion and move forward. Sometimes, you will need to accept that "good enough" is adequate and appropriate.
- You might be disappointed when a project or initiative falls short of your definition of excellence. Try not to get discouraged when you have to work on or sign off on something that is acceptable, but not ideal, in your eyes.

INFLUENCING

9. Significance®

HOW YOU CAN THRIVE

You want to make a big impact. You are independent and prioritize projects based on how much influence they will have on your organization or people around you.

WHY YOU SUCCEED USING SIGNIFICANCE

You want to do important work and are determined to make a difference. You want others to respect you for your significant contribution and willingness to work hard to achieve success.

TAKE ACTION TO MAXIMIZE YOUR POTENTIAL

Look for opportunities to do important work where you can help others raise the bar.

- Imagine the legacy you want to leave. Picture yourself in the future. When you look back on your life, what will you have done to make the world a better place?
- Make a list of the goals, achievements and qualifications you want to accomplish, and put them where you will see them every day. Use this list to inspire yourself.
- Tell the important people in your life how valuable their feedback and support are to you. You need appreciation and affirmation, and their words can motivate you.

WATCH OUT FOR BLIND SPOTS

- Because of your strong Significance talents, people might perceive you as overly concerned about your reputation and success. Acknowledge that you will need to earn the respect of others through your actions and contributions.
- Sometimes you might mask your vulnerability or come across as overly controlled, and this can make it difficult for others to know how to support you. Consider the value of making others feel important by letting them know when you need help.

EXECUTING

10. Belief®

HOW YOU CAN THRIVE

You have certain core values that are unchanging. Out of these values emerges a defined purpose for your life.

WHY YOU SUCCEED USING BELIEF

Your core values guide you and give you purpose. You provide clarity, conviction and stability by living your values.

TAKE ACTION TO MAXIMIZE YOUR POTENTIAL

Honor your values; they keep you on course during tough times.

- Keep reminders of your personal mission around. In difficult situations, these reminders will help you focus on your objective and the valuable contribution you make.
- Have courage in your ability to select projects to work on. Ask about their intended outcomes and target audiences. When possible, get involved in ideas and projects that match your values.
- Try to keep an appropriate balance between your work and personal life. Both areas will benefit when you dedicate enough time and attention to each.

WATCH OUT FOR BLIND SPOTS

- Because you are passionate about your own beliefs, others might view you as stubborn or set in your ways. Keep in mind that everyone has a unique worldview, and often, it will not be the same as yours.
- Be careful not to pass judgment on others' principles and motivations. Their values and belief systems deserve your respect, even when you don't agree with them.

Your greatest opportunity to reach your full potential is developing and using your strongest CliftonStrengths. But it is also important to understand all 34 of your CliftonStrengths themes.

Your unique CliftonStrengths 34 profile

The themes toward the top of your CliftonStrengths 34 profile might show up regularly in your life, and the ones closer to the bottom might not show up at all.

To fully understand your talent DNA, consider how all your CliftonStrengths themes, separately or in combination, influence your work and personal life. In addition to concentrating on your top 10 themes:

- Navigate the middle. You might notice these CliftonStrengths themes in your behaviors from time to time. And you may need to rely on them in certain situations. Think of these themes as a support system you can use when you need to.
- Manage the bottom. Just as your top CliftonStrengths show you who you are, those at the bottom may tell you who you are not. They aren't necessarily weaknesses, but they are your least powerful themes. If you don't manage them properly, they could prevent you from maximizing your potential.
- Identify weaknesses. To determine if any themes are getting in your way, review the "What Is a Weakness?" section on the next page, and find out how to overcome potential obstacles to your success.

To learn more about your entire CliftonStrengths profile, see the "Your CliftonStrengths 34 Theme Sequence" section at the end of the report.

Focusing on your CliftonStrengths doesn't mean you can ignore your weaknesses.

Gallup defines a weakness as anything that gets in the way of your success.

While the CliftonStrengths assessment does not mathematically quantify weaknesses, you can use your profile to understand how any of your CliftonStrengths themes might prevent you from maximizing your potential.

Your strongest CliftonStrengths are your best opportunity for success. But in some situations and with some people, these same themes can hinder your effectiveness and become blind spots.

The themes at the bottom of your profile can also get in the way of your success. They aren't necessarily weaknesses, but they likely do not come naturally to you.

To identify potential weaknesses, ask yourself:

- Does this theme ever undermine my success?
- Have I ever received negative feedback related to this theme?
- Does my role require me to use this theme, but I feel drained when I do?

If you answered yes to any of these questions, you may be discovering areas of weakness. Don't ignore your weaknesses. Instead, focus on your strengths, and work to manage the areas that get in your way.

How do I manage my weaknesses?

- Claim them: Know your weaknesses and how they get in your way
- Collaborate: Ask partners for support
- Apply a strength: Use a different theme to achieve a better outcome
- Just do it: Lean in and do your best

Identify Your Unique Contribution: The CliftonStrengths® Domains

While your CliftonStrengths 34 profile helps you understand who you are, there is also power in knowing how you make things happen, influence others, build relationships and process information. The framework of the four CliftonStrengths domains — Executing, Influencing, Relationship Building and Strategic Thinking — is another way to think about your CliftonStrengths and how you contribute when you join, create or lead a team.

The best teams are made up of individuals who understand their own — and others' — unique contribution to the team. This awareness and appreciation empowers the team to be more cohesive, versatile, productive and engaged.

However, be careful not to let the four domains limit your thinking. If you don't have any top themes in a particular domain, don't worry. That doesn't mean you can't think strategically or build relationships, for example. Everyone accomplishes tasks, influences others, builds relationships and processes information. You just use your stronger themes in different domains to get to the same outcome.

The next page shows you how your unique CliftonStrengths profile sorts into the four domains. Knowing which domain you lead with can help you understand your most powerful contribution.

The CliftonStrengths Domains

EXECUTING

People with dominant Executing themes make things happen.

INFLUENCING

People with dominant Influencing themes take charge, speak up and make sure others are heard.

RELATIONSHIP BUILDING

People with dominant Relationship Building themes build strong relationships that hold a team together and make it greater than the sum of its parts.

STRATEGIC THINKING

People with dominant Strategic Thinking themes absorb and analyze information that informs better decisions.

You lead with Influencing CliftonStrengths® themes.

You know how to take charge, speak up and make sure others are heard.

This chart shows the relative distribution of your unique CliftonStrengths 34 results across the four domains. These categories are a good starting point for you to examine where you have the most potential to perform with excellence and how you can best contribute to a team.

See chart below for more detail about your CliftonStrengths by domain.
